

CALL FOR POSTER AND FLASH TALK ABSTRACTS

CLIMATE|OCEAN|CHANGE 9TH HAIFA CONFERENCE IN MARINE SCIENCES JUNE 19TH, 2022 UNIVERSITY OF HAIFA, MT. CARMEL CAMPUS AND VIRTUAL UN SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS (SDG) EVENT

The organizing committee for the SDG endorsed event the 9th Haifa Conference in Marine Sciences invites you and your colleagues to submit an abstract for the Climate – Ocean – Change 9th Haifa Conference (COC-SDG). Graduate students and postdoctoral fellows are especially encouraged to submit. There will be prizes for the best posters and flash talks.

Abstracts should focus on new scientific results or studies related to ocean, ocean-atmosphere interactions related to climate/climate change, environmental and marine sciences or their applications and/or contributions to society.

The objective of the poster session is to communicate research and to promote and exchange new ideas in these fields. Abstracts should link climate change and the oceans, and especially those that interact with the following themes:

Environmental issues, human-nature interactions, agriculture, climate: past-present-future, human ecology, technological innovations and solutions.

The deadline for abstract submissions is on April 14th, 2022. You will be notified about the abstract's acceptance by April 28th via email, at the email address you provided during your submission. All submissions will be peer-reviewed and considered for acceptance by a panel of expert judges prior to the conference.

Registration (free) is required to submit an abstract. The posters should be prepared in a vertical (portrait) alignment that is appropriate for displaying virtually. Further instructions and details will be shared in your notice of acceptance. Abstract length is 250 words.

Submit an abstract to COC-SDG and share your science in person or virtually. Most sessions will be recorded and available to the global community of researchers, students, partners, educators, policymakers, journalists, and enthusiasts.

We look forward to receiving your abstract and if you have any questions regarding the 9th Haifa Conference in Marine Sciences: Climate|Ocean|Change (COC-SDG), please feel free to contact us at haifamarinecon@gmail.com
