

Application for MSc studies at the Department of Blue biotechnologies and Sustainable mariculture

When applying for MSc studies at the Department of Blue biotechnologies and Sustainable mariculture, the students should provide the following materials.

1. CV including details about the applicant education and work experience, scholarships and other career achievements.
2. Grades of the applicant BSc degree.
3. Intention statement (one page, max, in English) that includes the following details:
 - a. A paragraph about the students' background and motivation for achieving MSc in Blue biotechnologies and Sustainable mariculture.
 - b. If the student has already found an adviser, a paragraph about the students' proposed research.
 - c. If the students did not find an adviser, a paragraph about the main research interests of the students and possible labs in the department where he/she can pursue it.
 - d. The applicant expectations from the knowledge and experience he/she would gain during his/her MSc studies.