

Charney School Seminar series - Semester A + B

Course Type: Seminar

Course Level: MSc + PhD

Course Overview:

The primary objectives of this course is to provide the student with the fundamental knowledge on the whole marine science discipline in a comprehensive and holistic manner through participation in a series of seminars given by exceptional scientists. The aims of the course is to enlarge the students' knowledge on state-of-the art research.

Topics: Topics vary according to the invited lecturer. Topics cover the main disciplines learned in the school.

At the end of the course students will be able to:

1. Expand the knowledge an understanding of processes shaping and controlling the marine environment.
2. To comprehend the interaction between humans and the marine environment throughout history.

Requirements: Reports in case of absence.

Grading: 75% attendance.